

The University Recreation Cougar Kids Camp desires to provide each camper with the most enjoyable experience that we possibly can. While we understand that youth have a tendency to test the limits of acceptable behavior in many different situations, some behavior is simply not allowed, such as offensive language or statements, physical abuse, bullying, and stealing. Camp staff will work hard to be prepared for any situation, model positive behavior, communicate with campers, and resolve conflicts before they become out of hand. When these proactive practices are not enough to prevent negative behavior, action will be taken.

The following steps are the general actions taken when a problem arises:

- Staff member will intervene and discuss possible solutions to the problem with the camper
- Camp staff, camp director, and camper will discuss solutions to the problem
- Phone call to parent/guardian concerning the problem
- Phone call to parent/guardian and camper is sent home

FOR THE CAMPER:

I will try my hardest to behave in a positive way. If I do not, I will accept the consequences of my actions.
